DANIELSON

Noteworthy Increase in Library Circulation—Funeral of Mrs. A. J. Gillian—End of Sunday Vaudeville.

A total of 7,543 books were issued at the free public library during the quarter ending July 1. This is an increase of 1,119 books over the preceding quarter and also the most remarkable increase in any one quarter in the history of the library.

The high record quarter was during January, February and March, but at that time of year there is always a greater issue of books. The record then was 7,643 books.

Miss Evelyn Curtis, the librarian, is unable to account for the marked increase at this time of year, unless by the new arrangement of placing books in open cases and where they are easily accessible. She is anxious to do with it. As a general thing the number of readers diminishes during the summer.

Tryout Comes July 10.

The final tryout for membership on the team that is to represent this state at the national rifle matches to be held at the East Haven range July 10. At that time the present squad of 45 men entitled to try for the team will be reduced to 15. Danielson is to be represented at the tryout by Sergt. Ira Warren, who made the national picture of health. He is a native of Young, both of whom qualified at the regimental match recently held in New Haven.

The funeral of Mrs. A. J. Gillian was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry McEwen, on Potter street, Friday afternoon. Rev. Danton J. Kelly of the Baptist church, and Rev. R. S. Cushman of the Methodist church were the officiating clergymen. Burial was in Westfield cemetery.

Holiday Games.

Holiday games in the Eastern Connecticut league are scheduled as follows: Morning—Dayville at Putnam, Wauregan at North Grovesendale, Jewett City and Norwich-Taftville at Sachem park. Afternoon games—Putnam and Dayville at Wildwood park, North Grovesendale at Wauregan, Norwich-Taftville at Jewett City.

Arnold's Case Nolle.

The case against Harry Arnold, charged with a violation of the Sunday law in selling tickets for a vaudeville performance, previously advertised to take place at Wildwood park, last Sunday, was nolle prosequi in the town court Friday morning. It is understood, however, that there will be no more vaudeville shows at the lake on Sunday; at least not any in the general understanding of the term vaudeville.

The figures of merit of companies of the Coast Artillery corps for the past month give the Thirteenth company a rating of 84.73.

C. H. Starweather will lead the B. V. F. meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening.
